

Why KDI SCHOOL ?

A dynamic and vibrant education program delving into the experiences and the assets of Asia's top think-tank, the Korea Development Institute (KDI)

- Academic curriculum utilizing the intellectual riches of the KDI, accumulated from decades of experience in establishing national agenda and policies
- Education based on experiences in systematic research on global development and consultation to developing nations

Two specialized degree courses offering top-class specialization

- MPP: A policy program to nurture global leaders in the field of public policy, a student can select up to two concentrations out of the following seven:
 - 1) Global Finance and Regulation
 - 2) Trade and Industrial Policy
 - 3) Fiscal and Social Policy
 - 4) Regional Development and Environment
 - 5) Global Governance
 - 6) Entrepreneurship and Private Sector Development
 - 7) Public Management and Leadership
- MDP: Development policy program to train experts in international development, a student must take the Development Track and also may choose one concentration out of the above seven concentrations

World-class faculty

- 77 faculty members composed of Ph.Ds from the world's best institutions, including Harvard, UC Berkeley, Columbia, Pennsylvania, and Chicago
- Multi-national diversity, including faculties from the US, China, Australia, Taiwan, and Greece
- Faculty members owning a wealth of experience in both the private and the public sector, combining theory with practice

Truly international environment, with international students representing over 50% of the student body

- Over 150 international students from more than 60 countries around the world, creating an unique multi-cultural environment
- Optimal student composition (International students 51%, public officials 22%, private sector 21%, Media-NGO-undergraduates 6%)

38 dual-degree or exchange programs with top-notch institutions around the world

- Global Masters Program: 1 year at the KDI School, 1 year at a partner school to gain two master's degrees, partner schools include renowned schools including Cornell, Duke, Michigan State, and Syracuse
- Campus Asia: Multilateral government-sponsored education cooperation program among Korea, China, and Japan allowing a student to study at Tsinghua University, China and GRIPS, Japan, with possible degree awardment and credit transfer

Outstanding education services

- As the Korean center of the World Bank Global Development Learning Network, the KDI School offers diverse e-learning opportunities
- International conferences, seminars, and forums are held throughout the year in a multitude of fields including politics, economics, and international relations

Globe-spanning alumni network

- Over 1,500 Korean alumni working in a variety of fields including the government, public organizations, finance, media, private corporations, NGOs, and international organizations
- Over 1,200 international alumni from 100 countries serving as global leaders all over the world

