

YANG Qing 杨青

Professor & Ph.D Supervisor,

Academic director for Evaluation Master Degree Program, Fudan University

Institute for Financial Studies, School of Economics, Fudan University, Shanghai, CHINA

Prof. YANG has received her PHD from the University of Fudan University, China (2001) and Post-doctoral Fellow at Department of Economics, University of Vienna, Austria (2005/2015). She has also as a Visiting Scholar at University of Cambridge, University of York UK (2006-2007), a Freeman Fellow at University of Illinois at Champaign and Urbana, US (2011-2012), and Summer Researcher at University of Chicago, US (2012/2016) and at University of Goethe, Germany (2017), Princeton University, US (2019-2020).

She has been done research in Corporate Finance, Corporate Governance, such as CEO compensation and Firm Performance, Ownership Structure in Chinese capital markets; and Deep Learning, Fin-Tech and Extreme Risk management for sixteen years. As a researcher, She has been responsible for 2 projects sponsored by National Natural Science Foundation of China (NNSFC), 2 projects granted by Humanities and Social Science Fund of Ministry of Education of China, 2 projects granted by Humanities and Social Science fund of Shanghai, 1 EURASIA-PACIFIC UNINET granted by Austrian Government and 6 supported by local government and companies. Furthermore, she has been taken part in many international conferences as presenter held in Australia, Korea, Brazil and China as well as session Chair. And she also has published 7 books and more than 50 academic papers on top Journals in China. So, she has positively impact on Corporate Governance, Merger and Acquisition, Machine Learning applied in Asset Pricing both teaching and research areas.